

Charlie Lake PAC

General Meeting Minutes-December 9, 2013

Attending: Linda Bontron, Michael Bourcet, Geilan Carnell, Melissa Babuik, Kimberly Shaw

Called to Order: 7:02 pm

Old Business:

1. Fundraising-Profits: Devry-$1410, Purdy's-$5577 Almost $7000! Awesome! Thanks to all of the students for fundraising and all the volunteers who organized!
2. Secret Santa Gift Shop-Everything is ready and good to go!
3. Family Dance-Patricia will be decorating Wed. and Thurs for those that have time to drop in and help. She will ask for donations of decorations after Christmas and will also look for items on sale. Geilan has secured some door prizes. We cannot raffle anything off as we did not apply for a license from the Gaming Board. Donations from:
 - a. Penn West-6 family pool passes
 - b. D & T- iPod shuffle
 - c. Avon-snow globe
 - d. Purdy's-chocolatesThanks to all the companies that donated!

New Business:

1. Thank you gifts- Poinsettias for the janitors and Rascal employees. Purdy's for admin and secretary. For Mon. Dec. 16, Linda will buy a basket of items for the staff room (crackers, cheese, cookies etc) and do a thank you card for the staff. $50 dollars is in the budget for that already.
2. Linda has cancelled the concession for the Christmas bazaar due to lack of time.
3. Treasurer's Report-Gaming $9,497.19, Chequing $43,810.59. A cheque for Angie Pomeroy was written as she is done by the end of the week.
4. Mr. Bourcet Report: Dance Residency is going well. Angie has said that it was the best 1st day she has had. Most of our students have experienced the lessons before, so they are on track with the program. The Robot residency is going awesome! It started last week and the students are loving it! Grade 3 & up will be participating. Mr. Bourcet is supervising the outside play just to discourage rough play. The crazy carpets that PAC bought are popular.
5. Bussing inquiry-Linda phoned the MLA about the bussing charges that have been discussed. It is confirmed that there will be no charge for bussing this school year, but next year is still in discussion and is a possibility for Sept. 2014.

Adjourned: 7:30pm

Next meeting: January 13, 2014
